Eligibility

The contest is open to legal residents of New Zealand and existing owners of motorcycles entered as of December 31, 2014.

There is no limit to number of bikes entered per person.

Cost

The cost of entry is Free.

Categories

All motorcycles entered will be entered into one of the following categories

Classic, Cruiser, Sports, Dirt

Each motorcycle may only be entered into the competition once and only in one category.

Voting

In order to vote registration with Motorcycle Alley is required. Once registered and logged in, votes may be placed.

Voting is limited to one vote per category per day for each person.

The monthly votes counter will be reset to zero at the end of each month once the monthly winner has been determined.

Judging

Each month the five motorcycles in each category with the most votes will be judged. From these motorcycles Judges from Motorcycle Alley will select a monthly winner from each category.

Once a monthly winner for each category has been decided upon, the monthly vote count will be reset to zero. Voting will continue and the new monthly winner will be selected as per the above process.

At the end of the competition an overall category winner will be selected from the monthly winner's. Each category will be judged by a panel of independent judges based equally on the following criteria: creativity, use of accessories and originality. Judges' decisions are final and binding on all matters relating to this Contest.

Prizes

All entered motorcycles will be eligible for spot prizes.

Spot prizes will be drawn randomly each month from all motorcycles entered in the competition. Spot prizes will be issued throughout the duration of the competition.

The prize for the monthly winners and overall category winners will be 'The Glory'. Overall category winners will be presented with a winner's ribbon.
